Dear Stuart:

Thank you for your inspiring and productive work for our University of Victoria Co-op Education Annual Retreat last Wednesday.

You'll be delighted to learn that those who attended are moving quickly to put into practice the objectives they've set themselves as a result of your tactful encouragement and focused direction.

Staff report they found your presentation lively, thought-provoking, and effective. They found themselves re-framing problems and re-visioning possibilities. Above all, they left with their confidence and commitment to our program renewed, thanks to your guidance.

As Director, I particularly appreciated the hours of consultation and careful preparation you put into making the day so successful. I benefited from your experience and advice in planning the agenda and in preparing for the follow-up. I'm grateful for your positive emphasis on clear goal-setting and the importance of follow-up as we continue our renewal process.

We look forward to working with you in the future.

Sincerely:

Elizabeth Grove-White, Ph. D
